

ABOUT MRS. PROVOLT – Preschool

WHY I BECAME A TEACHER

BACKGROUND

- I was born in Caldwell, Idaho, to A.J. and Beth Naillon, the youngest of three children. I have an older brother and sister. We moved to Nampa when I was in the fourth grade.
- My siblings and I spent weekends and summers with our grandmother. She taught me how to sew and can.

EDUCATION

- Nampa High School graduate.
- Associate Degree in Applied Science in Early Childhood Education from College of Western Idaho.

EXPERIENCE

- This is my eighth year at Zion Lutheran School, and my sixth year teaching preschool students.
- I have previously worked as an infant and toddler teacher at a local daycare.
- I have also served in different children's programs at church.

FAMILY AND OUTSIDE INTERESTS

- I have been married to my husband Ben for 31 years, and we have four adult daughters.
- We have two grandchildren, and I feel very blessed by my family.
- I like to read, watch movies, and spend time with my family.

WHY I TEACH or AT ZION LUTHERAN

- I became a teacher because I wanted to help children learn and explore their world, and I enjoy watching children.
- I teach, understand, and grow in what I am teaching them, and what they are learning.

CLASSROOM MISSION STATEMENT

- Cultivate a classroom that is centered in virtuous living and being grounded in the truth of Christ.
